Conner Strong & Buckelew Employees Give Back at 5th Annual Community Day

Top Insurance Brokerage and Consulting Firm Volunteers in Three Local Communities

MARLTON, NJ, (June 9th, 2017) – Conner Strong & Buckelew, a leading insurance, risk management and employee benefits brokerage and consulting firm, announced today details of the company’s fifth annual Community Day event held on Friday, June 9th, 2017. More than 150 of the firm’s employees participated in the event. Community Day has grown each year in an effort to give back to the communities in which Conner Strong operates. As part of the company-wide day of service, Conner Strong & Buckelew employees volunteered with three local organizations in Camden, NJ; Toms River, NJ; and Morristown, NJ. In five years of the event, Conner Strong & Buckelew employees have collectively volunteered nearly 6,000 hours of their time.

“It has always been a priority of Conner Strong & Buckelew to give back to the community, and this annual day of service is just one of the many ways that we do so,” said George Norcross, Executive Chairman of Conner Strong & Buckelew. “It is an important demonstration of our commitment to be a force for positive change in the communities where we work and live. We are incredibly happy to be spending our fifth annual Community Day with Dr. Henry H. Davis Family School, The Eric Johnson House, and the B.E.A.T. Center. By working with these three well-deserving organizations, we look forward to helping transform the lives of those in our community for the better.”

Conner Strong & Buckelew’s Marlton, Dover, and Philadelphia headquarters gathered employees to volunteer at the Dr. Henry H. Davis Family School in Camden, NJ. Conner Strong & Buckelew volunteers partnered with the more than 400 students and staff members to partake in a range of activities including a math workshop, solar energy demonstration, an anti-bullying speech, general landscaping, furniture building, and mural painting.

Employees volunteered at the B.E.A.T. Center in Toms River, where they cleaned, sorted donations, and assisted the clients with shopping along with taking inventory. Conner Strong & Buckelew also had employees from Parsippany volunteer at the Eric Johnson House, which is a transitional housing program to help the homeless develop the skills necessary to obtain and maintain permanent housing. Employees did landscaping, planting and weeding for their vegetable garden.

Conner Strong & Buckelew is proud to have repeatedly been named a top corporate giver by Philadelphia Business Journal. The firm is well-known in the tri-state area and by the insurance industry for its employee volunteerism and charitable giving initiatives.
