Are You Ready? September is National Preparedness Month

On August 30, 2013, President Obama signed a Proclamation designating September as National Preparedness Month. The President states "I encourage all Americans to recognize the importance of preparedness and work together to enhance our national security, resilience, and readiness."

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) website provides information to help you prepare, plan, and stay informed. They also established The National Preparedness Community website where communities can connect, collaborate, and empower each other to fulfill shared responsibility to prepare.

Your safety is important to us. In addition to the FEMA references above, please click on the links below for information provided by our affiliate J.A. Montgomery Risk Control regarding emergency hurricane preparedness and business contingency planning.
