Top Hospital Study Published

Truven Health Analytics group has published their annual Top Hospital report. The Top Hospital study is an independent evaluation that uses objective research and independent public data to recognize what they describe as the best hospitals in the US. Hospitals do not apply and winners do not pay to market the honor. The annual study evaluates hospitals on measures of overall organizational performance, including patient care, operational efficiency and financial stability. It compares hospitals only against similar facilities in terms of size and teaching status.
